

CEDAR MOUNTAIN SCHOOLS PROUDLY PRESENTS:

Lakota Artist & Hoop Dancer Extraordinaire Starr Chief Eagle

Date: March 28, 2019- Thursday
Free Dinner to be served at 6:00 pm
Evening performance at 6:30 pm.
This event is open to the public.

There will be a traditional meal with served in the Cedar Mountain Elementary School cafeteria followed by a performance to be given by Starr Chief Eagle of Rapid City, SD.

About Starr:

Starr is an American Indian Culture Interpreter representing the Lakota Sioux people of the Northern Great Plains. She specialized in traditional Lakota Hoop Dancing. She currently is a student at the University of Minnesota, Morris studying American Indian Studies and Lakota Studies.

To register or for more information please telephone

Elementary (507)557-2251 or MSHS (507)557-2251.

