National Honor Society Inducts New Members

Eleven students from Cedar Mountain High School were inducted into membership of the National Honor Society in a ceremony held on Tuesday, September 18 at the Cedar Mountain High School cafeteria.

The National Honor Society ranks as one of the oldest and most prestigious national organizations for high school students. Chapters exist in more than sixty percent of the nation's high schools and, since 1921, millions of students have been selected for membership.

Current NHS members are: Alle Ahrens, Ethan Bock, Brady Forbrook, Nolan Freitag, Haley Hacker, Brooke Hoffbeck, Trenna Jeppesen, Kalli Kodet, Bailey Madsen, Ashley Rothmeier, and Emma Schouvieller.

Newly inducted NHS members are: Dain Dallenbach, Sean Distad, Nathaniel Johanneck, Kaitlyn Lorang, Jessica Lund, Rosalyn Madsen, Vincent Ochs, Maddison Rose, Shaylee Schiller, Trista Smith, and Novelynn Wabasha.

I want to congratulate our NHS members on earning this honor. The requirements for the Cedar Mountain National Honor Society include having a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.5, excel in and out of the classroom and possess the qualities of scholarship, service, leadership, and character. Students who meet these requirements are invited to become a member of the National Honor Society. Once the student accepts the invitation he or she must obtain a recommendation from an individual endorsing the student as a candidate for the National Honor Society. They also must belong to school and community organizations.
