

Email Threat

I want to thank our students, staff, and parents for their support and understanding during and after we received an email threat on Wednesday, January 24. As a district, we worked with law enforcement to form a plan that would keep students and staff safe. Because the email was not sent from the school server, this is a law enforcement investigation. The focus of the investigation is determining the source of the email and the person who sent it.

As a district, we will continue to work to ensure student safety. It is frustrating to receive a threat against our school and the rumors associated with the threat. The district is still deciding if MS/HS students need to make up this school day.

Snow Days

The first snow day at Cedar Mountain from January 22 is made up by teachers as a Staff Development day. Students are not required to make this day up. Our next 2 snow days are also made up by teachers as a Staff Development days. If we had a fourth snow day, that day would need to be made up by students. The full 2017-18 school calendar is on the district web site. Remember there is no school on Presidents' Day, which is February 19.
