BOOK ORDERS

There are 2 book orders in the folders. If you wish to order, please send the order form and money in an envelope by Monday, March 6. You can also order online by going to scholastic.com/readingclub.

MATH SKILLS

Counting money still seems to be a struggle for some 1st graders. Please help your child practice at home so they feel comfortable counting money. We also continue to practice our math facts. Extra practice at home will help with this skill also. Thank you☺

OUR WEEK

Reading-we did some review work and read Dr. Seuss books

Math—we are working on addition facts but continue to practice money skills.

Spelling—Practice spelling words. Homework is due on or before March 9.

Upcoming Events

March 6—AAA projects are due

March 10—Early Dismissal—12:10

March 24—There WILL BE SCHOOL—snow make up day!

March 24—End of 3rd quarter

March 31—Report cards go home

HEAD LICE ☹️

Head lice is all around but it has decided to invade the first grade classroom. A note went home yesterday with some information. Please check your child's head daily for a few weeks so we can keep this under control. If you have any questions, please call the school health office.

Reminders to Students

- Read books in the RED folder
- Practice math facts for timed tests.
- Bring library books every Tuesday.

Reminders to Parents

1. Please remember to check the daily folder each day ☺️
2. Please remember to bring Friday folders every Monday.
3. Homework is due on or before Thursday each week. If homework is not finished, first graders will need to finish at recess.
